Level 5

ILM (previously known as Institute of Leadership and Management)

ILM's leadership and management qualifications are designed to help managers and aspiring managers to develop the skills, knowledge and personal abilities needed to succeed.

Well over half a million practising managers have improved their performance and brought real benefits to organisations through ILM learning and development.

ILM management qualifications are for those who are practicing or aspiring junior to senior managers. From Team Leader (level 2) through to First Line Managers (level 3) and Middle/Senior Managers (level 5), there is a course at all levels that will enhance individuals skills and knowledge of management theory and practice.

Qualifications are designed to improve performance through their strong focus on the specific job role of a manager. These highly practical courses will equip individuals with the skills needed to improve their management ability and generate significant benefits to the organisation in terms of cost savings and quality improvements in the workplace.
